Keep Yourself From Idiots A New Look At John 1 20

Keep Yourself From Idiots [James McFelder 1963]

Keep Yourself From Idiots [Terry Griffith 2003-01-01] Challenging postmodernist interpretations of the letter. Terry Griffith explores how the polemic against idols is succinctly captured in Jesus' new commandment to love one another. He demonstrates that the modern view that Jesus' command is to love one another is a radical departure from the original context. Griffith argues that Jesus is not teaching a general call to love one another, but rather a specific command against loving the idols of the day. He provides evidence from the NT and the early church to support his argument.

Prophet. Of Yourself From Idiots [Terry Griffith 2013-01-01] Guidance and wisdom for maintaining good practices and avoiding temptation. With insight and wisdom, Terry Griffith reviews a selection of idioms which to practitioners are particularly vulnerable, under four headings: the sex, the age, the task and the ministry. His aim is not to condemn, but to instruct.

On the Duty of Luring ourselves from Idiots. A Letter to the Bishop of Winchester George Augustus Seymore 1813

We Became What We Worship 1KRIESEL 2014-10-21 The heart of the biblical understanding of idolatry, argues Gregory Beale, is not so much on the characteristics of what we worship, displaying Isaiah 6 as its interpretive lens, Beale demonstrates that this understanding of idolatry permeates the whole of Genesis, from Genesis 1:26 to Revelation. Beale concludes with an application of the biblical understanding of idolatry to the challenges of contemporary life.

Keep Yourself From Idiots [James McFelder 1964] A discourse of the book How to God A T. Thomas, Bishop of Woolwich

By the grace of God, I am the great redemptive enthusiast. As such, I have a right to be critical of our time, which is characterized by the proliferation of false gods and the worship of false idols. We are told by the apostle Paul that we should not be conformed to this world, but transformed by the renewing of our minds. But how do we go about this? How do we keep ourselves from being lured into worshiping false gods?
