Netpolicycom Public Agenda For A Digital World

Journal of Economic Literature- 2001

The Global Century-Richard L. Kugler 2001

African E-markets-Mohamed Abdel Rahim Mohamed Salih 2007 Written by a select group of African academics, policy makers, researchers, and experts from various social and economic science disciplines, this study provides provocative insights and case studies on the role information plays in African development. Up-to-date research and analysis on the impact of various forms of information on the development process is presented, including e-economic development and its impact on economic growth. Calling for greater attention to be paid to information as a key player in national economic development, this exploration of African economics cites the advantages of better statistical data and geographic information for more effective economic planning, management, and forecasting in a digital era.
